Come sing with the choristers: Saturday 2.30-3.30pm, Truro Cathedral

Last summer thousands all over the world joined Truro Cathedral choristers' virtual Sing2G7 project and Cornish school children actually helped them lead their Mega Zoom rehearsal across 14 timezones. Now you can come and hear the choristers in person and even sing with them if you like.

This Saturday at 2.30pm in the cathedral, the choristers' family-friendly Cushion Concert will include the famous 'Gee Seven' song as well as other favourites such as 'A Million Dreams' from 'The Greatest Showman' and 'Walking in the Air' from The Snowman. The hour-long concert is free and a truly inspiring experience for all ages. Everyone is welcome - just bring a cushion to sit on while you listen and if you love to sing, at the end, you'll have the opportunity to learn and perform a song with the choristers.

The Cushion Concert comes at the end of the Chorister Experience Day, for those interested in exploring life as a boy chorister. Parents of boys in years 2-4 who would like to attend that part of the day should contact christophergray@trurocathedral.org.uk.
